MAGI PILGRIMAGES

Magi Pilgrimages is primarily promoting Catholic and Christian groups to Holy Land and Europe from all over the world. We have operations in countries like the USA, UK, Germany, Israel, India, Thailand, Ireland, Switzerland and Australia.

Our pilgrimages have a greater emphasis on reflection of the lives of the saints and scriptures at various sites. We have evening sessions at the hotel to share the experiences of pilgrims and an orientation for the youth who journey with their parents.

Uncompromising with our quality standards, we give you luxury, and the prompt, efficient and quality service that you are accustomed to. We are constantly looking to improve and extend our product range, and are always happy to custom made itineraries to suit our customers needs or special interests.

In Australia, we are a licensed travel agent, and an approved participant of the AFTA Travel Accreditation Scheme (ATAS).

"Pilgrimages to Holy Places in the world continue to grow in popularity. They can be occasion's for real spiritual conversion and refreshment. I commend MAGI Pilgrimages in making practical contributions to enable this to happen in Australia."

Archbishop Christopher Prowse
Archbishop of Canberra and Goulburn

SITES FOR THE SOUL

Who doesn't like holidays? The travel, the exploring, the food, the sites, the difference in the air that you breathe, the break from the chaos of routine! So, what's special about a Pilgrimage? How is it different from the usual holidays?

This word first seemed to appear in the western vocabulary and soon came to be associated with 'a sense of purpose'. It wasn't just a wander or a break from routine but a special journey made with an intention to bring about positive changes in life. The book "Image & Pilgrimage in Christian culture" by Victor Turner and Edith Turner examines two major aspects of pilgrimage practice: the significance of context, giving rise to pilgrimage and the folk traditions enabling worshippers to absorb the meaning of the event.

Pilgrimage is a special journey, for exploring faith or gaining spiritual direction, for themselves and their lives.

New York Times once printed this article about Brian Kwan, a young photographer in Colorado Springs, who was born to Buddhist parents but was later converted to Christianity at the age of 16. When his father died suddenly, he began to question his faith. He decided to hike the Jesus Trail, a four-day, 40-mile journey from Nazareth to the Sea of Galilee. He carried no luggage. At one point Mr Kwan ran out of food and water and became disoriented. He wandered in the heat for 10 hours. "That was the scariest part," he said, "but I knew that God was with me, and that my dad was with me, too." His experience proved pivotal, and when he reached the Jordan River, he chose to become baptized.

Regardless of why you wish to go on a pilgrimage, there is always a personal underlying search to get deeper in to the mysteries of faith for every pilgrim. It is not just to see the beauty in the world, but to see the richness of a history we all are a part of basically, pilgrimages are a gesture of action.

In a world where more and more things are artificial and passing, a sacred journey gives the pilgrim the chance to experience something both physical and real.

As appealing as the destination may be, it is the journey within, that takes these unique travellers to places unmapped.

PILGRIM SPEAKS

I chose a pilgrimage journey for my Principal's Renewal Program as a source of spiritual strength, thanksgiving & repentance. The journey took me to many significant places in Europe. It was a lovely and beautiful experience.

Loretta Wholley, Canberra

Pilgrimage of Hope

We had never before travelled in a group so initially we were a little apprehensive. But the trip turned out to be absolutely tremendous and we enjoyed every minute of it. The guides were knowledgeable and very considerate and became a part of our family. Our chaplain Fr Joseph was excellent and was the true shepherd looking after his flock. Magi had the right mix which helped the group to share. Well done Magi. It was very professional. Keep up the good work!

Margaret & Mike Canny, Brisbane

Highlights of Holy Land

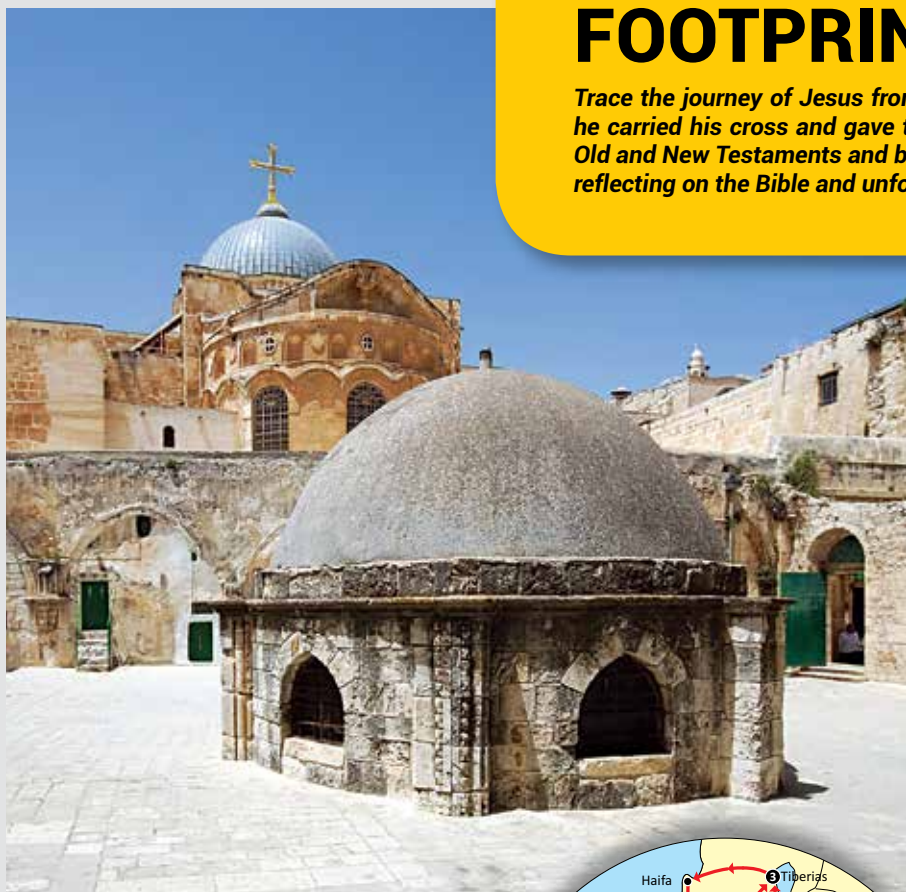

It was a good introduction to Greece and to see where St Paul went and the distance he travelled. The conference, St Paul: Persecutor to Preacher helped to picture more clearly the places when reading Paul's letters.

- No refunds are available if your cancellation is due to illness, incapacity or death of you or someone in your family.

CHANGES: If you desire to change your booking (as confirmed), you must notify us in writing, and these change fees will apply: A fee of $50 per person per change plus any excess charges required by suppliers, if the change is made up to 90 days prior to the departure date. A fee of $100 per person per change plus any excess required by suppliers, if the change is made from 59 days to 30 days prior to the departure date. A fee of $200 per person per change plus any excess required by suppliers, if the change is made within 29 days prior to the departure date, or after departure.

PASSPORT – VISA: You must possess an Australian passport with a validity of at least six months from the designated date of your return to Australia. Non-Australian passport holders must possess a valid visa to re-enter Australia. Visas required for travel must be applied by the passport holder unless otherwise stated. A Magi travel consultant will be able to advise you of the visa requirements, but it is your responsibility to ensure that you possess valid travel documentation. Cancellations due to lack of or invalidity of travel documents will be treated as a cancellation by you.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: The final travel documents will be delivered to you upon receipt of full payment, and no later than two weeks before the departure date. Upon receipt of your travel documents, you are responsible to check your itinerary, date and time of travel, name check, and any other important information contained as to accuracy. It is your responsibility to immediately contact Magi if final documents contain any errors. If you book a land package only, you must provide Magi with the rest of your travel documentation at least 10 days prior to the departure date.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: The booking does not include any insurance cover. It is a condition of booking that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance at the time of booking with cover for cancellation, medical and dental expenses, medicines, repatriation, evacuation, loss and damage to baggage, public liability and loss of documentation. If you intend to engage in adventurous activities, the travel insurance policy exclusions should not exclude cover for the activities you intend to engage in. Magi is not responsible if you are unable to claim or your claim is refused for any cover available under a comprehensive travel insurance policy.

PRICE VARIATIONS: All prices quoted are shown in Australian Dollars and are calculated on airfares, tour prices, land transfers, entry fees, taxes and foreign exchange rates calculated to apply on the departure date and are indicative and are subject to change until the booking is confirmed. The prices are subject to increase at any time due to changes in taxes, surcharges imposed by airlines, tour companies, governments, or foreign exchange fluctuations. Magi has the right to amend prices at any time prior to the departure date without notice if conditions so warrant. Fluctuations in the foreign exchange rate of the Australian Dollar may affect the published price. If the total cost of the pilgrimage increases by more than 20%, you have the right to cancel your booking within 15 days of such communication without penalty. In case of a human billing fault and/or computer errors, we reserve the right to re-invoice with correct billing. The deposit of payment indicates your acceptance of customary fees and costs paid to our overseas suppliers.

NOT INCLUDED: The tour cost does not include travel insurance premiums, vaccinations and excess baggage fees; airfares, fuel surcharges, taxes, passport fees, visa fees; beverages with meals, or any meals and sightseeing tours, entry fees to museums and attractions, unless specified. You must settle any charges made by an accommodation or services provider for services ordered directly such as room service, mini bar, laundry, post, telephone, internet, Wi-Fi charges, items of a personal nature or tips (accommodation providers may require validation of a credit card upon check-in).

ROOM TYPES: Prices are based on double beds or twin beds occupancy. You can make specific requests for single, double, or triple rooms at the time of booking, though availability cannot be guaranteed. If single rooms are available, additional charges will apply. Demands for a triple room can be done by either a full-sized triple room or a twin-bedded room with an extra roll-away bed. The twin share cost applies for all travellers who booked triple rooms. Individual travellers opting to Twin share with a fellow pilgrim of the same gender, do so in the full understanding that Magi cannot guarantee or is responsible for the compatibility or medical fitness of the individual. The room allocation will be at Magi's discretion and is not guaranteed. However, we will use reasonable effort to allocate rooms according to the request and/or availability. If a same-gender partner cannot be matched due to the group size and demographics, the individual may be offered a discounted single supplement closer to departure.

MEALS: The tour price includes two meals per day (breakfast and dinner) which are served at the hotels where accommodation is booked. Beverages are non-inclusive and there is no refund for any unused meals. Please advise any special meal request on the booking form and we will notify the hotel. However, we cannot guarantee that special meal requests can be met.

AIR TRAVEL: Flights will be booked in economy class and will be subject to the airline's conditions of carriage, including international laws. You can select your own or cabin class which is different to the group, and if so, pay the additional costs. Magi accepts no responsibility for cancellations, loss, delays, injury, illness, or expenses incurred in the course of air travel or which are the responsibility of the airlines. You acknowledge that airfare increases, and fuel and other surcharges can be added to the tour cost prior to final ticketing. You request for a specific seat should be made at the time of booking; however, it is in the airline's discretion to allocate that seat, and we cannot give any guarantee on seat allocations.

BAGGAGE: You are permitted to bring one checked suitcase, one small carry-on bag and one personal item (i.e., purse, laptop case). Weight and size allowances will apply to the suitcase and the bag. Please check with your specific airline. Magi is not responsible for the loss, theft, delay, or damage to your belongings which are not under its care and control, and for which reasonable precautions have been taken.

YOUNG TRAVELERS: Travellers who are less than 18 years old on the departure date must be accompanied by an adult. If travelling with adults other than the parents, we recommend they carry an authorisation letter from the parents. We also recommend you contact the applicable consulate and airlines to find out any additional requirements. For the purposes of our tour, an infant is defined as anyone who is under the age of 24 months for the entire duration of the tour. A child is defined as anyone between the ages of 24 months and 11 years for the entire duration of the tour.

MINIMUM NUMBER: A tour can only function at the publicized price if a minimum number of bookings are reached. If at 60 days prior to the departure date, numbers are below the minimum, a supplement charge on booked travellers may be applied to guarantee the tour.

HEALTH: Our tours require a reasonable amount of walking and climbing due to the terrain and the sites visited. You must declare pre-existing health conditions which might impede your ability to participate in walking and climbing activities at the time of booking. We recommend you consult your General Practitioner on any vaccination requirements. If you have medical conditions or disabilities which require assistance, you must bring an accompanying carer. Most of the sites, hotels etc may accommodate wheelchair/walking aides. You cannot complain about those that do not. Medical assistance for health reasons can be provided on request only by the pilgrim if required. Without a request from the pilgrim, we cannot offer medical assistance unless in an emergency where an ambulance or other such emergency services will be called. We are not liable for the cost of any such services provided based on request or due to an emergency.

BEHAVIOUR: We are here to provide the best service possible to the tour group, and in doing so we will not tolerate abusive or aggressive behaviour from any of our tour group. We will refuse to deal with and may terminate the vacation of the tour group who assault or are aggressive with our representatives or service providers. Termination will result in those persons being sent back at their own cost, and no refunds will be made for the inability to participate in the remainder of the tour. When you make a booking on for anyone on your behalf, you accept responsibility for the proper conduct of those persons while on tour.

COMPLAINTS: We aim to ensure that your travel or tour plans go on smoothly. Should a problem arise, it is important to try to resolve it with the service provider. If you are not capable to resolve the matter, you should raise it with our local contact person immediately. If this is impossible, we should be informed at the earliest. If you are unhappy with your hotel room, please inform the tour manager so that it may be resolved with the hotel right away. If you do not take these steps your claim for reparation may be reduced or denied. If you have a complaint, this should be put to us in writing detailing the efforts you have made with the local service provider to resolve the problem. Please forward the complaint with supporting documentation, within 30 days of the date of your return. No claim made after 30 days will be considered.

PRIVACY STATEMENT: We value your privacy and will treat all personal data confidentially and it will not be transferred to any third party other than necessary to fulfil the booking or deliver the requested service. We observe the Australian Privacy Principles.
